

Deepak Chaudhury

Deepak has a decade of experience in IT Service Management, Project & Program Management, Organizational Transformation and Process Improvement initiatives. He has worked with various clients in multiple geographies (USA, Australia, India, UK) and has been part of prestigious organizations like, Ness Technologies, CA (Computer Associates), HP, CRMIT and Emids. His area of expertise includes Innovation, Organizational Process Improvement, and Project, Program & Delivery management. He has successfully delivered Black Belt and Green Belt Process Improvement Initiatives, setting up PMOs and CMMI Level 3 Certification.

Deepak has received high accolades from his various clients across the globe. He has nearly 1200 training hours under his belt which includes internal as well as external trainings on PMP preparation, project management, process improvement (Lean Six Sigma) and general management trainings in Innovation, Negotiation, Decision Making and Problem Solving.

He is a B.Tech with industry certifications such as PMP, Lean Six Sigma Black Belt and CMMI Dev & Service. He is also a member of PMI, BSPIN and ASQ. Deepak is also the owner of the meet-up group called Bangalore Innovators.

Currently Deepak is engaged in providing consulting & training in Innovation, Project Management and Business Process Improvement (using Lean & Six Sigma) through his company STRAINNO.